Welcome to the new teaching session

We have had a great first teaching term, (not counting all the snow shovelling). All the classes went well and as usual the resulting quilts were fabulous. I wish there was a way to see them all finished, but try as I may I can't think of a practical way to show them. We are always really pleased when you make the effort and bring the completed quilt into the shop to show us. We do love Show and Tell; please continue to bring them in.

Staff changes have been made during the fall. It is with real sadness that we report that Kim Morris and her family have moved away from Whitehorse and settled in Prince George. We will miss her in the shop, she so loved working with the customers, choosing fabrics was a favourite part of the job. Vivacious and endlessly helpful both customers and staff enjoyed working with her. We wish her well.

Lori Hampton and her husband Joe are also leaving Whitehorse. They are going to Ecuador for several months and hope to settle there. She has already gone but will return to town temporarily in the spring. She has been at the shop for quite a few years and I will miss her on a personal level as well as a professional one. We all loved her positive and encouraging attitude to life and the shop. A big loss.

Our newest member of staff in the shop is Laurie Jacobsen. Welcome to our team. Come in and meet her sometime.

However our regular teachers are madly making their samples as I write this. Linnea is teaching another class as she had such a good time last session. We have a good selection of Fibre Play this year with Sally and Dahn. Check the samples out, they are always displayed by the cutting station in the classroom.

We have lots of new quilts but also a few favourites, back by popular demand, we hope you like them as much as we do. See you for class sign-up on the 5th of January, at 10:00am.

The Retreats went well, lots of fun and so much accomplished. It is amazing how many quilts you can finish in a 4 day weekend. Please look at the info in this newsletter listing the retreats and the relevant sign-up dates. To ensure your space at one of the retreats you have to be on the ball and get into the shop on the date.

To help you stay up on all things BPQ we have just moved forward into technology and now have an email alert list! Whenever some impending event is on the horizon, like sales, retreats, new fabric deliveries, then we send an email. It certainly has worked well so far. If you are not on the list please give us your address.

~Ruth and the staff of BPQ

New Term Sale ~ As always we want to start the teaching session with a blow out sale. You know the procedure; we have a 70% off table, a 50% off table and a 30% off table. All the remaining fabric in the shop will be 15% off. We will start on Thursday, January 10th at 10:00am until 6:00pm

What's new at BPQ?

(there is a class scheduled that night.) The sale will continue on Friday, January 11th until 7:00pm. That should give you all plenty of time to choose fabric for your classes. See you there.

Class Level Guide

In an attempt to guide you to the degree of difficulty in each class we have designated the following words:

BEGINNER

Those straight from QuiltStart would manage these classes and every other level are welcome, of course.

CONFIDENT

If you were an experienced sewer before QuiltStart this would be do-able, or if you have made a few quilts and you feel confident.

CHALLENGING

These require considerable experience in quilting, and will take time and patience. But you have to sew your first challenging quilt sometime.

This is only a guide to let you know what to expect from a class.

January

1. Daytime QuiltStart

with Ruth Headley

BEGINNER

  This class is designed for those who have no experience in quilting, or for those who want to get back to basic skills. The class has two components: Introduction to Quilting where you learn about the basic equipment and materials needed as well as learning about your machine, and QuiltStart where you will make a table runner in the Rail Fence design. This class provides the rudiments of quilting and prepares you to work on any number of projects afterward. This class is comprised of 12 hours of class time and probably 10 hours of extra sewing to complete the project.

6. Garden Delight

with Linnea Castagner

 This tried and tested pattern is a breeze to do. It starts with sewing a strata and then putting the blocks together into a quilt top. Then you cut the top into two pieces and sew it together to make a different shape. Then you cut it again and sew it again into a different shape. Exciting and nerve racking when you cut. The resulting quilt is amazing. Good for the confident beginner and a breeze for the confident quilter.

'Paint a landscape scene' will allow you to try Pebeo Setacolor paints on cotton fabrics. This is a hands-on painting workshop where you will mix colours and produce several fabrics suitable for landscapes. Painting fabric is easy, fun and very rewarding. We will be learning so many techniques, instructions sheets given to you for future reference.

Do not be intimidated if you are still a beginner at free motion embroidery painting. As long as you know how to free motion and you are familiar with your machine, this class could be just what you need to increase your skills!

with The Quilt Addicted

We are 10 years old! Can you believe it, did I have a life before BPQ? This retreat is in the shop and so we are limited in the number of people who can join in.

We begin on Thursday evening, sew when the shop is closed on Friday and then celebrate our birthday on the Saturday. We finish up on Sunday afternoon.

Sign-up is set for January at the big sign-up day. Do not delay if you want to join us. A few meals are provided. Birthday cake for all on Saturday from Mary El Kerr, oh yummy!!

30. Baby Floor Mat

with Ruth Headley

32. Flying Shuttles

with Bernice Ovens

Ruth had this quilt on her list to teach for several sessions but before she could fit it in, Bernice declared her intentions to teach it. Boo hoo for Ruth. The book pattern has flower applique in the border, but this part is not included in the class. The border has some changes to the pattern, you can choose how you finish the quilt. It is a simple repetitive block but it is essential that your 1/4 inch is accurate. For this reason it is confident/challenging.

33. Vanilla Latte

with Joanne Love

BEGINNER

  This is one of my favorite quilts so I had to offer it again for those of you who missed it the first time. Do you need to make a quick quilt but get stressed with the thought of choosing the right fabric? Layer Cakes are the perfect treat for any quilter. Each Layer Cake includes forty different 10-inch squares - just the thing for a quick quilt that looks like you spent a lot of time choosing fabrics that are perfectly coordinated. With the use of a background and border fabric, purchased separately, you can make this lap sized quilt in no time at all and don't have to worry about leftover fabric.

Sunday, March 3rd 10:00am-5:00pm
$50.00+ Pattern

34. Raggy Quilt

with Ruth Headley

BEGINNER

  We have new flannels coming all the time and some easy patterns to make in this technique. We need a prep night so we are all on the same page in the cutting and then we can start stitching in the second part of the class.

Tuesday, March 5th 6:30-10:00pm
Saturday, March 9th 9:00am-4:00pm

35. Machine Quilting Level 3 - Quilt within the Lines

with Ruth Headley

CONFIDENT

  Now we are ok at free motion, so the next stage is doing consistent designs within a smallish block. We have panels to work on to save us stressing about the quilt that took us so long to make. We can also work on a whole cloth quilt and just cover it in organized patterns. The class is just one evening, as once you get the idea of the technique it is all just practice.

Friday, March 8th 6:00-9:30pm

37. Music Room Windows

with Ruth Headley

BEGINNER

  This quilt is from the book "From Spain with Love". The staff fell in love with the book, we all bought one, and it even includes recipes, how good is that. This quilt is suitable for a large print fabric; you only need that fabric and a dark sashing to complete the quilt. I agonized about the fabric to use, but I think this will be a pattern that I will return to so that I can showcase fabulous large prints that are sometimes difficult to use.

with Ruth Headley

BEGINNER

40. African Coins

with Ruth Headley

BEGINNER

This is a scrap quilt, so sort those bits out and bring them along. Simple piecing makes the main coin blocks. It's the pieced sashing that makes this quilt so stunning. I made the sample within a vague colour grouping, but you can make it with just mixed scraps. The original sample was made by Lori and is smaller than the quilt I made. Choose whatever size you want.

41. Lori's Quilt

with Ruth Headley

BEGINNER

For several years Lori Hampton has been saying "why don't quilters make a quilt for a quilter, they are the only ones that really appreciate them". So for her big birthday I made her a quilt and this is it. I wanted to teach it, so I made a twin for it. Made from a Layer Cake so it cuts down on the work, and it is ideal for a beginner. Happy Birthday Lori.

with Ruth Headley

Looking at Kim Schaefer's new book "Cozy Modern Quilts", it was difficult to choose which one to do. I decided on Maze Madness and so this will be my Grunge quilt for this time. ### 45. Advanced Thread Painting

with Dahn Casselman

CONFIDENT

This class is for those people who want to take their free motion painting to another level. Using colour theory techniques honed from personal thread painting experience, you will learn how to blend thread colours, how warping can be controlled with intensive stitching and how to best orientate your fabric for great results. We will also explore how and when to use various stabilizers on a variety of fabrics. Please note that this is a technique driven class and there is no project.

Pre-requisite: Confident skills with free motion stitching and a good knowledge of your sewing machine are required.

Thursday, March 28th 6:00-10:00pm
$30.00

47. Working with Water-Soluble Papers

with Sally Sheppard

Working with water-soluble papers will provide an exciting option for machine and hand embroiderers and will add interest and texture to any work. We will work with two types of water-soluble paper to explore various techniques. Participants will gain further understanding of the possibilities offered by including paper in their fibre art. The wonderful samples, still wet, will be ready to take home to dry and incorporate in larger works.

50. Twisted Turn place mats

with Ruth Headley

Place mats with a difference! I have done this technique once before in a wall hanging and really enjoyed it. You sew small pleats in the fabric and then twist and turn them, and sew them down. It's good fun. You can make place mats or a table runner.
